We Are Alike

SET-BC Accessible Books Collection

<http://www.setbc.org/setbc/accessiblebooks/default.html> A collection of over 700 books for students to read independently! Accessible Books are popular children's books that have been "recreated" through the use of scanning and recording to enable the non-reader to access them via technology. Formats include PowerPoint, Clicker5, Intellitalk.

Tar Heel Readers

<http://tarheelreader.org/> Tar Heel Reader, a collection of free, easy-to-read, and accessible books on a wide range of topics. Each book can be speech enabled and accessed using multiple interfaces (i.e. switches, alternative keyboards, touch screens, and dedicated AAC devices). The books may be downloaded as slide shows in PowerPoint, Impress, or Flash format.

Browser Books

<http://staff.prairiesouth.ca/~cassidy.kathy/browserbooks/index.htm> This website was created to allow beginning readers to read books on their web browser. Readers can click on the triangle in the lower right-hand corner of each page to turn the pages. If they are unsure of a word, they can click on it to hear a child's voice read the word to them. The books have been sorted by level and by subject according to the curriculum.

e-Picture Books

A new series of traditional tales for the early reader for independent reading or whole class work. There is a fabulous on line reading program here as well. One has to register for a password but it is free to use.

Robert Munsch

<http://robertmunsch.com/booklist.cfm> There are 53 Robert Munsch books that students can listen to; these are read by the author.

Speakaboos

<http://www.speakaboos.com/> Speakaboos is a fun, safe, and free site for children and grownups! You can listen to and watch Favorites, Fables, Nursery rhymes, Fairy Tales, Fold Tales and Songs. It has great resources for Parents and Teachers.

* Check your local Public Library website since they may subscribe to online books sites Tumble Books, Book Flix - all you need is your library card. HAPPY READING!
